The United States of America,

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING:

WHEREAS, James Jenkins of Howard County has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States, a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Frankfort, whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said James Jenkins according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of the 25th of April, 1829, entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of the Public Lands," for the South-west fractional quarter of the two last-named in Township forty, Range twenty, West in the District of Indiana, off the line at five miles east of the said according to the official plat of the survey of the said Lands, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General, which said tract has been purchased by the said James Jenkins

NOW KNOW YE, That the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the several acts of Congress, in such case made and provided, have Given and Granted, and, by these presents, do give and grant, unto the said James Jenkins the said tract above described: To Have and to Hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities and appurtenances, of whatever nature thereto belonging, unto the said James Jenkins and his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I, Andrew Jackson,

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the City of Washington, the first day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty of the Independence of the United States the fifth day

By the President,

Commissioner of the General Land Office.
